

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Phoenix brass band gave an open air concert last evening on the City Hall plaza.

The Gila River is reported as being extremely high, being far above the fording point.

Gus Hirschfeld is engaged in making out the duplicate assessment roll of Maricopa county.

Pedro Sanchez yesterday paid in the Recorder's Court a fine of $7.50 for riotous conduct on the previous day.

The Good Templars of Cartwright school district held open lodge tonight and invite their friends to be present.

Janitor Collins is saving the grass clipped from the Court House grounds, and has now in the rear of the building quite a stack of excellent hay.

Passengers on yesterday's train state that the desert around Maricopa is a sea of water, in many places several feet deep. The rainfall Friday was enormous.

The eastern train due at Maricopa Thursday morning, reached that point at 12:30 p. m. yesterday. No train arrived from the West, there having been near Gila Bend a washout of considerable magnitude. It was expected, however, that the break would be repaired yesterday and that the train would reach Maricopa in the evening.

Another eastern train was also expected. The Maricopa and Phoenix railroad had a little trouble itself, several culverts having been washed away near the crossing of the Gila River. All were fixed as rapidly as possible, and the train arrived in Phoenix about 5 p. m.

PERSONAL.

Mart. Pomeroy, of Mesa, is in the city.

S. Billings, of Casa Grande, is at the Mills House.

Dr. J. D. MacLennan left on yesterday's train for El Paso.

C. T. Springer, book-keeper for the Blinn Lumber Company, Tempe, is visiting Phoenix.

Ben Hall, delegate to the Democratic Convention from Enterprise precinct, is in the city.

Dr. E. D. Jones, of Philadelphia, and Wm. H. Grant, Charleston, S. C., are at the Hotel Lemon.

Hon. Geo. W. Cheyney is expected today in Phoenix, to attend a meeting of the Normal School Board.

Walter Talbot and family, D. H. Burtis and Miss Pemberton, leave this morning for Camp Creek, where a sylvan vacation of several weeks will be enjoyed.

Perry Williams, who has obligingly filled the vacancy of day operator in the Phoenix office for several days, will be relieved on September 1, by Clarence Vincent, now one of the operators at Maricopa. Mr. Vincent is highly spoken of.

Miss Annie Estes, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, a niece of Mrs. J. M. Cotten, is expected to arrive from the East today. The lady is a teacher of experience and comes to fill a position in the Phoenix schools.

Edgar L. Stornum, assistant teacher at the Territorial Normal School, returned yesterday from a visit to Agua Caliente. He will within a few days take up his residence in Tempe and assist in the preparation of the Normal for the work of the coming term.

Of the country delegates to the County Convention there have already arrived, Messrs. Barnett, Kimball and Newell, of Mesa, Messrs. Long and McWilliams, of Buckeye, Mr. Dickinson, of Agua Caliente, Frank Marmon, of Phoenix Mine and H. Simkins, of Lehi.

The Southern Methodist Camp Meeting.

The following ministers will be present at the Southern Methodist Camp meeting which begins August 27: Revs. D. F. Fuller, E. G. Roberts, T. W. Mansfield, W. L. Albright, L. J. Hedgcock, T. R. Stewart, J. F. G. Finley, and Bishop O. P. Fitzgerald.

Bishop Fitzgerald is one of the two Bishops elected at the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, last May. His has been a busy life, and much of it spent in western pioneer work. He was sent by his church, when a young minister, to California. He was for several years State Superintendent of Public Schools in that State; editor of the Pacific Methodist, for twelve years editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate, the general organ of the church. He is the author of several works, among them being two charming little volumes, "California Sketches."
